

Announcement

Grants, Low Interest Loans and Business Assistance For Street Food Vendor Grant Project (SFV) in Oakland

Deadline to Apply is November 15, 2020.

Project Description:

In response to the recent health, social and financial crisis propelled by the COVID-19 pandemic, and with the support the Oakland Cares Act, FTHF is launching the Street Food Vendor Project (SFV) to address key challenges that street food vendors face in their efforts to emerge from the informal economy. Grants will be given to a diverse population in terms of race/ethnicity representative of the City of Oakland.

The SFV Project consists of providing a three-part package to qualified Vendors:

1. Grants up to $4,000 are disbursed to 15 to 20 qualified Street Food Vendors in Oakland funded by the Oakland CARES Act. Grants will immediately inject equity into their business,
2. Flexible loans are offered at 3% annual interest rate, funded with FTHF loan pools. Grantees are not required to obtain a FTHF loan if they do not need or want it. Let FTHF know if you would like to learn more about its loan products. Email to meche@feed-hunger.com
3. Business technical assistance is provided to help vendors navigate the complex process of licensing and permits and to improve business practices.

Who is considered a mobile food vendor?

Mobile food vendors are individuals selling foods from:

- Food Motorized Units: trucks, trailers or similar self-propelled conveyances.
- Food Non-motorized units or non-fixed structures: food carts, tables, booths, kiosks or similar means. Included here are sidewalk vendors, people who sell food or beverages on a public sidewalk or other pedestrian path, from a pushcart, stationary cart or other non-motorized equipment as allowed by the County Environmental Health Department.

Approved Use of Funds:

- Capital to purchase vendor's unit and/or equipment that can meet regulatory standards, and/or
- Working capital to run the business, particularly during unpredictable sales due to the COVID crisis.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Street Food Vendor has an address within the City Of Oakland,
- Street Food Vendor has a permitted unit or has the intention to obtain all the required permits and licensing, and
- Street Food business must show some potential for sustainability.
